Privatimus Now Providing Security and Risk Mitigation Exclusively for Family Offices, Exposed Persons, Wealth Management and Corporate Clients

Headquartered in Hamburg, Germany, Privatimus provides security and consulting services to an exclusive group of clientele around the world.

HAMBURG, Germany (August 1st, 2013) – Privatimus announced today its official company launch in providing security consultation, risk mitigation and protection to an exclusive group of clientele including family offices, exposed persons, high net worth individuals (HNWI), wealth management and corporate clients. Based out of Hamburg, Germany, Privatimus provides security and consulting services to clients around the world.

Built with a global network of experienced security advisors and operatives with over 20 years of experience working with some of the world's largest multinationals, family offices, wealth management firms, and exposed persons, Privatimus provides exclusive service that protects their client's personal financial and family interests across cultures and time zones.

Premium services offered by Privatimus protect a client's privacy, reputation, assets, identity and their family members, wherever they are in the world. These services include risk assessments and intelligence, strategic protection concepts, and operational security in addition to investigations and background checks.

Additional services from Privatimus include business continuity management, travel security & global assistance services, crisis & risk management and mitigation, security training & Social Media awareness as well as other areas of expertise. The company also offers OSRINT®, its patented Open Source Risk Intelligence advanced monitoring technology to identify and track personal data online in open sources. For data security, Privatimus offers a Secure File Sharing Portal for sharing confidential documents and reports with clients.

PRIVATIMUS®

Zeeshan Nasir, a partner of Privatimus gained 15+ years security and consulting experience as a personal security advisor to high net worth individuals and providing global operational security to exclusive clientele. He comments: "Privatimus provides a very personal service to our clients, and deals discreetly with the most important aspects of life: safety and security. Client relationships and the bespoke services we offer are built on core values of reliability, integrity, confidentiality and professionalism. Our sophisticated protection strategies are made in Germany and implemented around the world."

About Privatimus GmbH

We are a company of high integrity, scale and reach. Since 1993, our experts have provided security advice, risk mitigation and protection to family offices, wealth management firms, exposed persons, high net worth individuals (HNWI), groups, and corporate clients around the world. Everything we do in identifying risks, protection strategies, operational security or background checks must be executed with pinpoint precision.

Privatimus focuses on an exclusive group of high-profile clientele exposed in public due to their professional activities, family history and wealth, or because of general public interest. We have a worldwide network of experts who can work across cultures and time zones to help ensure our client's personal interests are protected.

Life Demands Perfection.
